Hi Sara,

The facility name is "ALNO INDUSTRY SDN BHD", "安乐工业有限公司".

They use English name in Malaysia. The second is the Chinese name.

Best regards.

I would do them now to the extent that you can. These do two items. First, it provides us with basic ownership information that we use to verify Foreign Corrupt Practices Act compliance.

Essentially that no one is on a US black list.

The second is for Lacey and CARB /EPA compliance. On that questionnaire, I recognize that you might not have all the pieces yet. Just fill it out the best you can. If you have your suppliers lined up for raw materials you can go ahead and put those in. We will need the TCP certificates before you start production but you will have to have those anyway.

We can work with you in filling in the blanks so that we don' t hold up getting production started.

Thanks

Hi Jill,

The Malaysia factory is setting up production line now, the production can only be started in end of November or early December.

How soon do you need to do the questionnaire before we start production?

Look forward to hearing from you soon.

Thank you and best regards.
